Emergency Relief

TWGHs Emergency Relief Fund

To support the families of the deceased and the affected residents, the Group initially allocated HK$3 million from its Emergency Relief Fund. Every affected household will receive an emergency fund of HK$1,000 in cash. To date, assistance has been provided to about 1,900 households.

Free Temporary Shelter and Related Support Services

To assist in accommodating affected residents, TWGHs promptly arranged several affiliated service units following the Incident, including the "TN Residence" youth hostel, TWGHs K B Tam & W K Li The Bamboo Hostel, and 2 transitional housing projects, namely "T-Loft@Lok Wo" and "T-Loft@Kai Tak", as temporary shelters. The Group has provided a total of 111 housing units for 107 families in need.

"TN Residence" promptly provided daily necessities for families that had move in. Our social workers followed up on each household's situation, offering emotional support and assistance. An information station was also established to provide health checks, distribute supplies, and offer consultation services. In addition, stress-relief workshops led by our clinical psychologist were conducted to support residents in managing their emotions and safeguarding their mental well-being. The young tenants of "TN Residence" also took the initiative to serve as volunteers, assisting with the distribution of supplies. Their participation exemplified the spirit of youth hostels in encouraging young people to contribute meaningfully to society.

此外，為安頓受影響家庭，本院亦迅速調配「樂和·東寓」及「啟德·東寓」的空置單位，並添置基本生活用品及必需傢俬，包括餐桌、衣櫃及床等，優先分配予有緊急需要的家庭，確保受影響人士能及時獲得適切支援。東寓團隊亦迅速統籌、整理及派發各類捐贈物資，包括日用品、食物、電器、傢俬及寢具等。其中特別感謝順豐香港協助收集各界物資及迅速安排物流，確保物資及時送達受影響家庭，及時紓解他們的急切需要。物資來源包括本院友好善長，政府支援、多個慈善基金、企業、地區人士及義工團體等。

情緒輔導方面，東寓社工團隊為每戶入住的居民即時進行個案評估，識別受影響家庭的情緒及心理需要。本院為居民提供一站式情緒支援及輔導服務，多個專業機構及政府部門亦提供義務及專門支援，如精神健康諮詢委員會的「凝聚·同行」計劃等，陪伴受影響家庭度過創傷後的艱難時刻。香港律師會亦於「樂和·東寓」設立緊急免費法律諮詢櫃位，安排面對面初步諮詢，協助居民處理補辦文件等相關法律事宜，兼顧受影響家庭的需要。

本院能迅速籌集並派發生活必需品，即時為大埔居民提供有力的支援，全賴一眾善長及機構捐出物資支援受影響人士，捐贈物資包括日用品、禦寒衣物、電器、通訊設備、食物飲料及醫療器材等，鳴謝名單詳列於第 159 頁。

Furthermore, to provide accommodation for the affected families, the Group promptly allocated vacant units at "T-Loft@Lok Wo" and "T-Loft@Kai Tak", furnishing them with essential household items and necessary furniture such as dining tables, wardrobes, and beds. Priority was given to families with urgent needs to ensure timely and appropriate support. The team also coordinated, organised, and distributed donated supplies, including daily necessities, food, electrical appliances, furniture, and bedding. Special thanks are extended to SF Hong Kong for its support in collecting resources from all sectors and swiftly coordinating logistic, ensuring that supplies reached affected families quickly to relieve their pressing needs. Donations generously provided by benevolent supporters of the Group, government assistance, charitable foundations, corporations, local residents, and volunteer groups.

Emotional support was provided by social worker from T-Loft who conducted immediate case assessments for each household upon move-in, identifying the emotional and psychological needs of affected families. The Group provided one-stop emotional support and counselling services, while multiple professional organisations and government departments also offered voluntary and specialised assistance. Notably, initiatives such as those led by the Advisory Committee on Mental Health, accompanied affected families through the difficult period. The Law Society of Hong Kong also set up an emergency free legal consultation counter at "T-Loft@Lok Wo", providing face-to-face consultations and preliminary advice to assist residents with document replacement and related legal matters, thereby addressing their practical needs.

TWGHs swiftly mobilised to collect and distribute essential daily supplies, providing timely and effective support to Tai Po residents. This was made possible thanks to the generous contributions of benefactors and organisations, who donated items to assist those affected. The donated supplies included daily necessities, warm clothing, electrical appliances, communication equipment, food and beverages, as well as medical devices. A full list of acknowledgments is detailed on page 159.

「守望·同行」災後喪親家庭支援計劃

為關注喪親家庭的悲傷情緒和精神健康，東華三院「圓滿人生服務」喪親者支援服務參與由精神健康諮詢委員會推動及香港賽馬會慈善信託基金資助的「守望·同行」災後喪親家庭支援計劃。計劃與社會福利署的「一戶一社工」協作，透過由本院具備喪親支援經驗的社工團隊，向喪親家庭提供喪葬及實務支援、悲傷個案輔導及舉辦節日思親活動等，緩解親友離世所帶來的悲傷及焦慮情緒，陪伴喪親家庭渡過難關。

本院亦提供專業評估，按需要轉介具嚴重精神健康風險的喪親個案至臨床心理學家或精神科醫生，以提供更深入的精神健康支援。截至 2026 年 1 月底，東華三院喪親者支援服務已向 107 個喪親家庭提供喪葬及實務支援，並按需要提供個案輔導及相關悲傷情緒支援服務。

動員 160 名社工支援照顧者支援專線

全力支援「一戶一社工」工作

Compassionate Support Programme for Bereaved Families

To provide sustained care for the emotional well-being and mental health of bereaved families, TWGHs "Endless Care Services" Bereavement Support Service has joined the "Compassionate Support Programme for Bereaved Families", initiated by the Advisory Committee on Mental Health and funded by The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust. In coordination with the "One Social Worker Per Household" of Social Welfare Department, the programme has provided bereaved families with funeral and practical support, grief counselling, and remembrance activities during festive seasons. These services aim to ease the sorrow and anxiety arising from the loss of loved ones and to accompany families through this difficult period.

TWGHs also offers professional assessments and referred bereaved cases with severe mental health risks to clinical psychologists or psychiatrists for in-depth mental health support. As of the end of January 2026, TWGHs Bereavement Support Service has provided funeral and practical support to 107 bereaved families, along with case counselling and related grief support services as needed.

Mobilising 160 Social Workers to Support the Carer Hotline

In addition to supporting the families of the deceased, TWGHs also provide care to individuals emotionally affected by the incident, as well as the carers. We operate a 24-hour Crisis Hotline at 18281 and a Carer Hotline 182183, both staffed by social workers who offer emotional support. As of the end of February 2026, the hotlines had received 386 and 3,125 calls respectively and completed referrals for 910 families. During peak periods, TWGHs immediately mobilised 160 social workers from different service centres to assist in handling calls to the Carer Hotline 182183, so that calls from disaster-affected households could be answered as quickly as possible and connected with the Social Welfare Department's "One Social Worker per Household" initiative.

Supporting the "One Social Worker per Household" Initiative

Following the incident, TWGHs swiftly launched support efforts across multiple areas. Since each case has different circumstances and needs, some affected families required more extensive support. In alignment with the Government's "One Social Worker per Household" initiative, TWGHs also deployed 42 social workers to provide timely and consultation services to 171 cases. These services included offering emotional support, assisting with housing searches and relocation, gathering supplies, helping children from affected families with school transfer procedures, and providing information to help residents rebuild their social networks. For example, elderly residents in need were given a "Standardised Care Need Assessment for Elderly Services" to facilitate their access to appropriate support services.

■ Charitable Giving

Charitable Giving towards the Incident of Wang Fuk Court, Tai Po

To collect public donation in support of the urgent needs of those affected, the Group has set up a donation webpage titled "Charitable Giving towards the Incident of Wang Fuk Court, Tai Po". The Group raised funds actively from 27 November 2025 till 31 March 2026, for long-term support for residents' livelihoods, rebuilding of home, and the rehabilitation of the injured. A full list of acknowledgments is detailed on page 148 to 159.

No administrative cost will be deducted from public donations, ensuring that all donations are fully allocated to support the individuals affected by the Incident.

At the same time, the Group is thankful for the support from the banks, electronic payment platforms, and convenience stores to facilitate donation collection. A full list of acknowledgments is detailed on page 160.

■ Funeral Support

In response to the major fire incident, the Group promptly activated its contingency mechanism to provide free funeral assistance to the bereaved families, supporting them through this difficult period. Relevant expenses were covered by the "TWGHs Funeral Fund" and designated donations, with a subsidy up to HK$80,000 per case and no limit on the number of cases. The frontline teams upheld their highest standards of professionalism and responded to unfounded rumours with steadfast dedication and concrete action. 東華三院殯儀基金詳情
Details of TWGHs Funeral Fund

截至 2026 年 2 月 8 日，最後一宗免費殯儀已於本院轄下殯儀館順利完成。本院合共協助處理 93 場喪禮，佔火災罹難者總數近六成，總開支為港幣 7,399,603 元。其中感謝虎星文化集團有限公司、曾志偉先生 MH、泡泡森林文化有限公司、安靈舍有限公司、信善紫闕玄觀有限公司、前任總理劉東海先生、釋法因法師及一眾善長的指定用途捐款，餘款將由「東華三院殯儀基金」撥款承擔。

面對大規模嚴重燒傷的遺體，殯儀館遺體化妝師團隊承受著巨大壓力，但仍堅守崗位，默默耕耘。本院更緊急聯繫長沙民政職業技術學院殯儀學院，邀請兩位修復專家來港，與本地團隊並肩作戰。內地專家不僅示範先進的修復技巧，更逐一檢查每具需要修復的遺體的具體狀況，共同制定解決方案。他們推薦使用的組織修復泥，有效克服了皮膚嚴重脫皮的技術難題，為五官還原工作奠定重要基礎。

針對坊間流傳本院要求家屬先使用政府津貼、以及不提供遺體修復服務等失實言論，團隊選擇以行動回應，專注服務本質。由於 3D 打印技術仍有局限，團隊決定以傳統手藝與時間競賽，耗時較常規多三倍的時間，為逝者進行面容修復與化妝。從對照生前照片塑形、處理皮膚脫皮問題，到配戴假髮及修飾受損肢體等細節，他們一絲不苟，務求還原逝者安詳的面容。

作工團隊亦以具體行動體現對逝者的尊重。除了基本的遺體接收、淨身更衣及棺木裝裱外，他們特別關注家屬的情感寄託，例如細心保留家屬囑咐要留存的小朋友貼紙，守護那份珍貴的生命記憶。考慮到遺體狀況較為脆弱，團隊預先準備尺碼較大的衣物，並以輕柔協調的動作移動遺體關節，嚴防造成二次損傷。

本著減輕家屬傷痛的原則，各顧客服務主任同事耐心向家屬解釋在殯房進行遺體入殮的安排，避免家屬反覆直面親人的受損遺體，承受二次傷害。從諮詢對接、喪禮統籌、棺木挑選到靈堂布置，他們一直陪伴在側，為需要同時處理多位家人後事的家屬提供適時支援，讓他們不再感到孤立無援。

As at 8 February 2026, the last free funeral service was completed smoothly at the Group's funeral parlour. In total, 93 funerals were arranged by the Group, accounting for nearly 60% of all those who lost their lives in the fire. The total expenditure amounted to HK$7,399,603. The Group extends its sincere gratitude for the designated donations made by Tiger Star Culture Group Limited, Mr. TSANG Chi Wai, Eric, MH, Pop Forest Entertainment Limited, Soul Comfort Shelter, Shun Shin Chee Kit Yin Koon Limited, former Director Mr. LAU Tung Hoi, Harry, the Venerable Shi Fayin, and other well-wishers. The remaining costs were covered by the "TWGHs Funeral Fund".

Faced with the challenge of handling severely burnt bodies, the make-up team at the funeral parlour endured immense pressure but remained steadfast and quietly devoted to their duties. The Group urgently reached out to the Funeral College of Changsha Social Work College, inviting 2 restoration experts to Hong Kong to work alongside the local team. These experts from the Chinese Mainland not only demonstrated advanced restoration techniques, but also carefully assessed the condition of each set of remains requiring restoration and jointly devised appropriate solutions. Their recommendation to utilise tissue restoration putty effectively addressed the technical difficulties caused by severe skin peeling, laying an essential foundation for the subsequent facial reconstruction work.

In response to rumours alleging that the Group required families to exhaust government subsidies before receiving assistance, or that it did not provide body restoration services, the team chose to let their actions speak, remaining focused on the core mission of their work. As 3D printing technology proved unsuitable in this context, the team relied instead on traditional craftsmanship, working tirelessly against time. Spending 3 times longer than usual, they meticulously restored and applied make-up to the faces of the deceased. From shaping features based on pre-incident photos and addressing severe skin damage, to fitting wigs and carefully restoring damaged limbs, they attended to every detail with precision, striving to restore a serene and dignified appearance.

The undertaker team also demonstrated profound respect for the deceased through their meticulous and thoughtful approach. Beyond carrying out essential duties such as body reception, cleansing, dressing, and coffin preparation, they remained deeply attentive to the emotional needs of the families. For instance, they carefully preserved small items, including children's stickers that families wished to keep, safeguarding these precious mementoes. In view of the fragile condition of the remains, the team took the initiative to prepare larger-sized garments and handled the joints of the deceased with utmost care, coordinating their movements gently to prevent any further damage.

Guided by the principle of easing the suffering of bereaved families, the customer service officers patiently explained the encoffining procedures at the mortuary, helping families avoid repeated exposure to the distressing condition of their loved ones and thereby sparing them further trauma. From arranging consultations and coordinating funeral logistics to assisting with coffin selection and the preparation of funeral halls, they offered steadfast support and attentive companionship throughout the process. Particular care was extended to families who were arranging funerals for more than one loved one, ensuring that they felt supported and never alone during this most difficult time.

3D 打印技術仍有局限，遺體化妝師團隊以傳統手藝對照先人照片修復着色，務求做到最好。

Despite the limitations of 3D printing, the make-up artist team used traditional techniques, referencing photos of the deceased to ensure the best possible restoration.

Continuous Support

TWGHs Tai Po Neighbourhoods Resource Centre

TWGHs will continue to work in close coordination with the Government, bringing together the strength of all sectors of society to provide hope and sustained support to residents affected by the incident as they rebuild their lives.

We are deeply grateful to The China Charity Federation for its generous donation of RMB 80 million (of which RMB 10.1 million was contributed by the Beijing China International Capital Corporation Limited Charity Foundation through the China Charity Federation), equivalent to approximately HK$88.26 million. The donation will provide medium- and long-term support to the disaster-stricken affected residents of Wang Fuk Court in Tai Po, including assistance for emergency resettlement expenses, enhancement of temporary housing facilities, procurement of daily necessities, medical expenses, psychological support and community integration, medium-term livelihood assistance, long-term recovery planning, and the establishment of a special assistance fund.

有關捐款亦支援本院於大埔廣福道設立東華三院大埔鄰舍資源中心，暫定營運期為三年，免費提供電腦及各項文書處理支援，為受災家庭提供一個共享空間，讓他們於往來大埔處理各項事務時有個稍息落腳點，並設有專業社工駐場提供諮詢、轉介及輔導服務，亦設有面談室及小組活動空間，以作個別或小組的心理情緒支援以及社區凝聚活動；服務團隊亦會定期更新相關資訊，包括政府政策、援助措施、住屋訊息、活動及各類支援等，並協助有需要的家庭尋找合適的中期及長期的住宿選項；中心亦會收集公眾或商業物品捐贈，轉贈予有需要的街坊。

The Centre will provide free computers and document-processing support, as well as a shared space where affected families may rest while travelling to and from Tai Po to handle various matters. Professional social workers will be stationed on-site to offer consultation, referral, and counselling services. Dedicated interview rooms and activity spaces will also be available to facilitate individual and group psychological and emotional support sessions, as well as community-building activities. The service team will regularly update and disseminate relevant information, including government policies, assistance measures, housing information, community activities, and other available support services. They will also assist families in identifying suitable medium- and long-term accommodation arrangements. In addition, the Centre will receive in-kind donations from members of the public and the commercial sector, and coordinate their distribution to residents in need.

Under the various medium- and long-term support initiatives, the three-year service is expected to achieve the following outcomes:

- Reach 3,000 residents of Wang Fuk Court and neighbouring communities in the Tai Po District;
